

Plant Seed Song

Created by: Janai West

This song is a great addition to any plant or flower unit. It includes information about plants and is set to a familiar tune (I'm a Little Teapot).

I recommend making a large poster of the song with clipart to aid students in remembering the lyrics. Student size (1/2 sheet) versions of the song are included with the larger version of the lyrics.

One year, my class of Kindergarteners performed this song for our school Spring show. They sang the song twice since it is short.

For more ideas and cute clipart visit my blog: RigorousResources.weebly.com

There are two versions of the song. I use the full sheet version to project or make into a poster. Print out the 1/2 sheet versions so that students can have a copy of their own. Students often keep their copy in a folder for music or in their book box so they can read the lyrics during independent reading.

Little Plant Seed

(to the tune of I'm A Little Teapot)
Lyrics written by: Janai West

I'm a little plant seed
in the ground
Here are the roots
that hold me down

When I get all warmed up
See me sprout
Pop!
My stem comes pushing out.

I'm a flower
in the ground
Bees are buzzing
all around

When a bee lands on me,
it feels funny
Yay!
The bees made lots of honey!

Little Plant Seed (with motions)

(to the tune of I'm A Little Teapot)

Lyrics written by: Janai West

I'm a little plant seed
in the ground

Student crouches on ground and hugs knees.

Here are the roots
that hold me down

Use both hands to point all fingers down towards the ground

When I get all warmed up
See me sprout
Pop!

Hug body and look up at the "sun".

My stem comes pushing out.

Jump up with hands pointing to the sky like a stem.

I'm a little flower
in the ground
Bees are buzzing
all around

Hands on hips with elbows pointing out like leaves.

Point to self or flower hat. Pretend to look at bees buzzing by.

When a bee lands on me,
it feels funny
Yay!
The bees made lots of honey!

Pretend a bee lands on your nose or shoulder (can cross eyes for added effect).

Both hands into the air when yelling 'Yay!'.
